

39th Annual Governor's Service Awards

Nominations for the 39th Annual Governor's Service Awards are currently being accepted. The Governor's Service Awards recognize Marylanders who have provided significant volunteer contributions to communities around the state and have worked to change Maryland for the better. Throughout this challenging year, Marylanders have united to demonstrate extraordinary resilience, expand community relationships, and contribute to a collaborative ecosystem of service. The 39th Annual awards ceremony will recognize volunteer service that occurred between October 2021 - December 2022 (or longer for the lifetime achievement award).

The Nomination Form

It is strongly encouraged that nominations include comprehensive quantitative and qualitative data to support the service described. To learn more information about the awards process, visit our website gosv.maryland.gov/governors-service-awards.

The deadline to submit nominations is to Friday, December 30, 2022, at 11:59 p.m. EDT. Late or incomplete submissions will not be reviewed. If you have questions while completing your nomination, contact Tyler Groves from tyler.groves@maryland.gov.

Note that if you close this form your information WILL NOT be saved. Please consider preparing your answers in a separate word document, and copying and pasting into the form.
